YOUR HISTORIES of
NORTH OAKLAND

Sights, Sounds, & People from the Recent to the Deep Past

I came to Oakland in 2001, moving here over Labor Day weekend. I moved into my husband's house, and was very happy and felt safe and secure. A week later, the planes hit the towers and ~~not~~ so much changed.

Hubby and I are still taking good ~~care~~ care of each other and want to see neighborhoods of people being good to each other, too. With the cultural diversity in Oakland, if we all took good care of each other this ~~earth~~ place could be a big slice of heaven.

Thanks for making history!

Today's Date:

Your Neighborhood:

Years in Neighborhood:

commonsarchive.net